SUNDAY RUN-GYMKHANA.....7th MAY

As we said in last month's newsletter this will be one Sunday run Jack Barrow will be competing in instead of organising. So watch out....Jack's out for blood. Ray Chayter is doing the organising of the run which will finish at Lota around about midday. This will give plenty of time to get to the Gymkhana ground where events should get under way about 2. Ray Luckhurst and Ross Gillespie will be running the Gymkhana and from past experience it should be very interesting. Wonder if Ross will bring in the "Gillespie Touch" - a variation of some of the novel sub-events he has used in night runs? Prizes for the events in the Gymkhana will be presented on the following Wednesday at the Wongo Night.

WONGO NIGHT.....10th MAY

Perhaps some of our many new members do not know what a "WongoNight" is. Well, its a combination of "Wog" and "Bingo". You've all heard of Bingo but you mightn't have heard of Wog. It would be impossible to try to explain it to you here, but, believe me, its really fun. Everyone taking part in our last Wongo night completely enjoyed themselves. Supper will

WONGO NIGHT.....Wednesday 10th May

Everyone who attended this night enjoyed themselves. The Davis family had a Gala night. Bert was the "Super-wog" of the evening with the highest score and his mother pulled out two of the Bingo pots. More than fifty people attended voted the night a success and intimated they would like another one in the near future. Supper was provided and the night was organised by Graham Rankin and Bert Davis.

TALLEBUDGERA WEEKEND.....13th & 14th May

As per usual all those hardy members who went to Tallebudgera had a really mighty time. Although only a few turned up they made up for the lack of numbers by their enthusiasm. First to arrive was Ross and Vern Gillespie, Ray Luckhurst and Bert Davis, who arrived about 8 o'clock. It took the boys a record three hours from Brisbane to Tallebudgera, including a brief(?) stop at Beenleigh for fish and chips. Right on schedule (about 5 hours late) Ray Chayter walked into the kitchen unit and had himself aand milk. The diehards finally retired about 2 a.m. On Saturday the famous Grudge Match (fishing competition) between Ray and Bert was really on. They finished up about even tho'- Ray with a flathead (nowhere near as big as the one caught at Ross Gillespie's last year, of course) and Bert brought the score even with a bream. During the evening a night run (organised by Ray Luckhurst) was held and resulted in a win for Les Barron. Les, incidentally, did a mighty job. First of all he travelled down from town by himself specially to compete in the night run and when he got there found he could not get a navigator. Undaunted, he set out himself and came home an easy winner.

Una Webb and Mrs Davis made quite a few of the sandwiches and the hall was decorated by Una, Ross Gillespie and Bert Davis. The Reunion was very able compered by Ray Chayter. An item that drew a big clap was the Hula Dance by Dorothy Sang. The boys really got a big kick out of the dance and tried to get Dorothy to do an encore but we think she was a bit shy. The evening (?) finished up very early for a night of this kind and the diehards finally left at 1.30 a.m.

Wog was the order of the day later in the evening after the night run and finished up in a win for Graham Adams. Some mysterious sickness attacked the camp on Saturday and quite a few of the boys (and one of the girls) were off their food for a couple of meals. Some nasty people blame Bert Davis's steak sandwiches on Friday night, but he assures us that his rumour is unfounded. The main thing is everyone enjoyed themselves and had a really good weekend.

NIGHT RUN.....Wednesday 29th May

The run on this night took competitors into fairly closely settled areas and the organisers received a few complaints about this. For any member organising a night run of this nature it is advisable to take competitors out into the more sparsely populated areas of the city as soon as possible as cars running around in the densely populated parts can draw a lot of "crabs" from householders who object to having lights flashed on their front windows. The run was organised by Clive and Peter Wells and was won by Una Webb, Bert Davis and Ross Gillespie.

FILM EVENING AND TRIAL BRIEFING....Wednesday 31st May

More than fifty people attended the Film Evening and Trial Briefing and they saw some very interesting films on past club events and other motor sporting activities. The briefing went off smoothly and we're sure some of the newer members appreciated the few tips that were given on the trial.

WINTER TRIAL.....Sunday 4th June

Set over one of the best courses we have experienced in trials for some time the Winter Trial attracted 24 entrants. The trial wound its way from the clubrooms through Chermside, through a very contentious rubbish dump, and to the lunchtime stop at D'Aguilar. The return journey was via Mt. Mee, Dayboro, Samford and back to the clubrooms. Supper and 15 of the best was provided there and the oldtimers finally gave it away around 9 o'clock.

MORE PARS ABOUT PEOPLE

STOP PRESS.....Just as this issue was going to press we heard that Ray Chayter finally caught that flathead. It looks as though Bert Davis will really have to try hard during the Tallebudgera weekend to set the record a bit higher. Ray caught it during his holidays down south. As he has just got a movie camera, no doubt he will have some photos of it being weighed on the big game scales at Coffs Harbour. Bert insists on seeing the shots before he will commit himself.

—oOo—

An old voice was heard at the mike at the start of the IWMAC two-day trial the other weekend. Nev. Thompson who has been up north for his firm is back in Ipswich for his holidays and nobly offered to take over the job of announcing the starters in the trial. Good job he did, too.

—oOo—

If the unofficial results are right it looks as though BSCC may have just about scooped the pool in the above trial. Very unofficial and very provisional results place Morrie Blinks and Pete Roberts first, with a loss of three points, Alan Larsen second with a loss of four and Bob Hines third.

Very sorry to hear Ross and Vern Gillespie's grandmother passed away on 2.5.1961. Our condolences Ross and Vern and all the Gillespie family.
